Skating Supersedes Dancing in New York's Fashionable Set
In Consequence Fashion Leaders Are Adopting
Small Close Shapes for Mid-Winter
MILLINERY

So great has become the craze for skating that many of New York's fashionable hotels are establishing ice palaces on their roof gardens, and all the world is skating on ice or on roller skates, and the small hat, which is the skating hat, is the favorite.

The horse show has also emphasized the popularity of Small Hats, as many Round Turbans are shown with flowers laid flat around the brim. The leading colors are brown, and the new horse show rose; also white and black. Hats made entirely of breasts have their niche in fashion's favor. Many of these have a glint of silver or other metal trimming in the shape of grapes or other small fruits.

Prices Are $5.00 and $7.50
